- (iv). Any other RPT, which is prescribed under any law for shareholders' approval from time to time.

Provided that above requirements shall not apply in respect of a resolution plan approved under section 31 of the Insolvency Code, subject to the event being disclosed to the recognized stock exchanges within one day of the resolution plan being approved.

Provided that above requirements of obtaining approval of Audit Committee or Shareholders shall not be applicable on transactions entered into between a holding company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with such holding company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.

(C) Review of RPT

The RPT during the quarter will be referred to the next scheduled meeting of the Audit Committee for review and approval. Any member of the Audit Committee, who has a potential interest in any RPT, will refrain himself/herself from discussion and voting on the approval of the RPT.

For reviewing a RPT, the Audit Committee will be provided with all relevant material information of the Related Party Transaction, including -

- (i). the terms and conditions of the transaction;
- (ii). the purpose of the transaction;
- (iii). the benefits to the Company and the Related Party; and
- (iv). any other relevant information/documents.

In deciding whether to approve a RPT, the Audit Committee will consider the following factors, among others, to the extent relevant to the RPT:

- (i). Whether the terms and conditions of the RPT are fair and on arms length basis to the Company and would apply on the same basis if the transaction did not involve a Related Party.
- (ii). Whether there are any compelling business reasons for the Company to enter into the RPT and the nature of alternative transactions, if any.
- (iii). Whether the RPT would affect the independence of an independent director.
- (iv). Whether the RPT would present an improper conflict of interest for any director or Key Managerial Personnel of the Company, taking into account the size of the transaction, the overall financial position of the director, chief executive officer or other Related Party, the direct or indirect nature of the director's, Key Managerial Personnel's or other Related Party's interest in the transaction and the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship and any other factors the Board/Committee deems relevant.

If the Committee determines that a RPT should be brought before the Board, or if the Board in any case elects to review any such matter or it is mandatory under any law for Board to approve the RPT, then the considerations set forth above shall apply to the Board's review and approval of the matter, with such modification as may be necessary or appropriate under the circumstances.

Nothing contained in this policy shall apply to the following transactions:

- (i). Compensation to a director or KMP in connection with his or her duties to the Company or any of its subsidiaries or associates, including the reimbursement of reasonable business and travel expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business.

- (ii). receipt of remuneration by Independent Director by way of sitting fees.
- (iii). any profit related commission by directors or KMP as approved by members.
- (iv). Any transaction in which the Related Party's interest arises solely from ownership of securities issued by the Company and all holders of such securities receive the same benefits pro rata as the Related Party.

6. TREATMENT OF THE RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS NOT PREVIOUSLY APPROVED

Where any contract or arrangement is entered into by a director or any other employee, without obtaining the consent of the Board or approval by a resolution in the general meeting, if required and if it is not ratified by the Board or, as the case may be, by the shareholders at a meeting within three months from the date on which such contract or arrangement was entered into, such contract or arrangement shall be voidable at the option of the Board or, as the case may be, of the shareholders and if the contract or arrangement is with a related party to any director, or is authorised by any other director, the directors concerned shall indemnify the company against any loss incurred by it.

The Company may proceed against a director or any other employee who had entered into such contract or arrangement in contravention of this Policy for recovery of any loss sustained by it as a result of such contract or arrangement and shall take any such action, it deems appropriate.
