(V) Procedure for enquiry in case of leak of UPSI:

On becoming aware of actual or suspected leak of UPSI of the Company by any Insider or Designated Person, the below mentioned procedure be followed in order to enquire and/or otherwise investigate the matter.

(1) On receipt of the information of actual or suspected leak of UPSI, the Managing Director & CEO (the “MD”) shall take cognizance of the matter and decide as follows:

- (i) If it is found that the allegation is frivolous, not maintainable or outside the scope - the same may be dismissed.
- (ii) If it is found that the issue requires further investigation - Preliminary Enquiry shall be initiated within seven (7) working days of receipt of the information of actual or suspected leak of UPSI.

Any instance of leak of UPSI should be on the basis of a direct first- hand experience of the Whistle Blower. It should not be based on any secondary, unreliable source such as grapevine or any other form of informal communication. The Whistle Blower may report leak of UPSI by an email to the MD at his e-mail ID mentioning the subject line “LEAK OF UPSI”.

(2) The MD shall conduct preliminary enquiry as fact-finding exercise. The object of preliminary enquiry is to ascertain the truth or otherwise of the allegations contained in the information or complaint, if any, and to collect necessary available material in support of the allegations, and thereafter to decide whether there is justification to embark any disciplinary action.

(3) The MD may also appoint and/or authorize any person(s), as he/she may deem fit, to initiate/conduct an enquiry to collect the relevant facts, material substances on actual or suspected leak of UPSI.

(4) The MD shall submit his/her report to the Chairman of the Audit Committee within seven (7) working days from the date of initiation of preliminary enquiry. The Chairman of the Audit Committee on receipt of such report shall convene a meeting of the Audit Committee within a period of 30 days of receipt of report of preliminary enquiry.

(5) The Audit Committee shall consider the matter and put forward its recommendation to the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”). The Board, on receipt of such recommendation and after due review, if forms an opinion that the complaine is guilty of leak of UPSI or suspected leak of UPSI, then it will order for necessary disciplinary action(s), which includes wage freeze, suspension, recovery, clawback, ineligibility for future participation in employee stock option plans, etc, as may be decided by the Board.
