

Stronger ties will greatly benefit us: PM in Russia

Kremlin says Modi, Putin will hold both private, extended talks today

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Moscow, 8 July

In his first trip since the start of Moscow's invasion of Ukraine, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Monday travelled to Russia to hold summit talks with President Vladimir Putin — a visit that is being seen as having a wider geopolitical context and signalling.

Shortly after landing in Moscow, Modi said he is looking forward to deepening bilateral partnership in futuristic areas and that stronger ties between India and Russia will "greatly benefit our people".

India seeks to play a "supportive role" for a peaceful and stable region, the prime minister said in his departure statement.

President Vladimir Putin will hold extensive talks with Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Tuesday, both one-on-one and with delegations, a top Russian official said on Monday.

"Around noon, Putin and Modi will start talking. We expect that there will be a private conversation, as well as Russian-Indian talks over an official breakfast," Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov was quoted as saying by the state-owned TASS news agency.

"No joint communication with the media is foreseen," he said. "But we expect an extended exchange of views at both the private and extended sessions, which will largely compensate for the lack of statements to the media."

Modi was received at the Vnukovo-II airport by Russia's First Deputy Prime Minister Denis Manturov. The Russian first deputy minister also accompanied the Indian prime minister to his hotel from the airport, officials said.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi meets Indian diaspora in Moscow on Monday

Manturov had received Chinese President Xi Jinping during his visit to Russia as well. On Tuesday, Modi will co-chair the 22nd India-Russia annual summit with President Putin, interact with the members of the Indian community and visit the Rosatom pavilion at an exhibition. The prime minister is also scheduled to lay a wreath at the "Tomb of the Unknown Soldier".

The focus of the 22nd India-Russia annual summit is likely to be boosting bilateral cooperation in the areas of energy, security, trade, investment and people-to-people exchanges. The Ukraine conflict is set to figure in the discussions.

In the talks, Modi is expected to urge the Russian side to end recruitment of Indians as support staff to the Russian military and ensure the return of those still operating in the force.

"Landed in Moscow. Looking forward to further deepening the Special and Privileged Strategic Partnership between our nations, especially in futuristic areas of cooperation," Modi said on X. Modi was accorded a guard of honour at the airport. He was given a warm welcome outside The Carlton Hotel in Moscow by members of the Indian diaspora and a group of Russian artists who danced to the tune of Hindi songs. "A memorable welcome in Moscow! I thank the Indian community for their affection," Modi said in another post.

10th round of OALP bidding for oil & gas assets likely in Aug

SUBHAYAN CHAKRABORTY
New Delhi, 8 July

The 10th round of bidding for oil and gas assets under the Centre's Open Acreage Licensing Policy (OALP) is expected to commence next month, petroleum and natural gas ministry officials said.

OALP-X may be one of the biggest so far in terms of area covered and the number of blocks on offer, and is expected to double the area under exploration.

The winning bids for OALP-IX, the final deadline for which had been extended to May, will also be concurrently announced, they said.

"The government wants to expand the area under exploration fast. After the OALP-IX and X bid rounds are successfully completed, about 560,000 sq km area is expected to come under exploration by the end of the year," an official said.

India has an estimated sedimentary area of 3.36 million sq km comprising 26 sedimentary basins, of which 1.63 million sq km area is on land, 410,000 sq km in the shallow offshore area up to 400 metres from the coast, and 1.32 million sq km in the deepwater area beyond 400 metres. Currently, an estimated 10 per cent of the sedimentary basins are under exploration.

The ninth round comprised 28 blocks with an area of approximately 136,000 sq km. This includes 23 blocks based on expressions of interest (EoIs) received from companies between April 2022 and March 2023 and five blocks carved out by the Directorate General of Hydrocarbons.

The 28 blocks under the round are spread across eight sedimentary basins and include nine onland blocks, eight shallow water blocks, and 11 ultra-deep-water blocks. To date, 134 exploration and production blocks comprising an area of 207,000 sq km across 19 sedimentary basins have been awarded by the government.

It has been difficult to get foreign players to participate till now. OALP-VIII ran for a year till July 5, 2023.

The Centre is planning to bring 560,000 sq km under oil exploration by the end of 2024

Remittances below $25K also need Form A2 now

T N C RAJAGOPALAN

I have been making outward remittances to my son studying abroad for his maintenance through my bank. They used to only ask for a simple request letter stating the purpose of remittance. Now, I am told that I have to submit a form A2 every time I want to make a remittance. Is this correct? Yes. The RBI has allowed the banks to release foreign exchange for any current account transaction, on the basis of a simple letter containing basic information and subject to an upper limit of $25,000 or its equivalent. Banks were not required to obtain any other documents, including Form A2. The latest AP (DIR) Circular no.13 dated July 5, 2024 says that the banks must obtain Form A2 in physical or digital form for all cross-border remittances irrespective of the value of transaction.

We refer to the draft directions to Authorised Dealers on export and import of goods and services put up by the RBI on its website on July 2, 2024. I do not see any specific instructions for grant of write-off in those instructions, whereas in the current Master Direction no.16/2015-16 dated January 1, 2016 (as amended), there are detailed instructions of grant of write-off. In fact, the draft directions do not deal with export claims, refund of export proceeds, agency commission on exports or even surrender of proportionate export incentives when there is shortfall in realisation of export proceeds. As exporters, we need clarity on all these matters and so would appreciate your views on the same.

The RBI has only put up the draft directions on exports and imports of goods and services for public response. The directions would be finalised only after receiving feedback from exporters, importers, banks and other stakeholders. So, you can also give your feedback via email to RBI by September 01, 2024, with the subject line "Feedback on draft regulations and directions on export and import under FEMA". Now, at Para 3.5 of the draft directions, the RBI does say that AD banks, on request of the exporter, may permit reduction in the full export value after satisfying themselves of the bona fides of such requests. And at Para 4.1 of the draft directions, the RBI does say that AD banks shall put in place a comprehensive, well-documented policy as approved by their Board of Directors within six months of issuance of this circular for handling payment transactions related to export/import of goods and services and merchanting trade. So, it appears the RBI has left it to the judgment of the banks on how to deal with requests for write-offs, export claims etc. For banks, so used to only implementing RBI directions on exports and imports, it is uncharted territory. So, we have to wait and see how they respond. For exporters and importers also, a situation where different banks act differently, instead of everyone following the same RBI instructions will be a new experience. We have to wait and see.
